NUMBER 249

A FIGHT AT COLESBURG

Boers Repulsed by the British Soldiers in Hard Brush.

CAVALRY IN PURSUIT

Nineteen Prisoners Taken and Fifty Men Are Slain by the Britons.

Englishmen Lose One Major, and Another Is Wounded—A Force of Six Hundred Boers Sent to Colonel Pilcher Is Now Believed To Be in the Vicinity of Dover Farm, Where Pilcher Is in Camp—Engagement at Mafeking Is Reported—Other War News.

Rensberg, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—The Boers attacked the British left at Colesberg today with a force of one thousand men. The British infantry and artillery, who occupied an elevated position, repulsed the enemy after some hard fighting, and the cavalry pursued the Boer retreat, capturing nineteen men and inflicting fifty casualties. The general position of the opposing forces about Colesberg is unchanged today.

In this morning's engagement the British lost Major Harvey of the Tenth Hussars, killed, and Major Alexander, wounded.

Boers at Dover Farm

Cape Town, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—A dispatch from Orange river says the force of six hundred Boers which was dispatched by Gen. Cronje across the Riet river to Col. Pilcher is believed to be in the neighborhood of Dover farm, to which place Pilcher withdrew after the evacuation of Douglass.

Boers Again Defeated.

London, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—A Cape Town dispatch says that it is rumored that the Boers were again defeated at Mafeking. It is said that eighty British soldiers stormed the Boer position and inflicted a heavy loss but left twenty-one of their number dead on the field. Thirty-three British were also wounded.

High Sheriff Captured.

Cape Town, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—High Sheriff Juta of the Transvaal, was arrested here today while attempting to sail for Delagoa Bay. Subsequently he was paroled.

Decisive Conflict Near.

London, Jan. 5.—Another big engagement in the vicinity of Ladysmith, with the relief of Sir George Stewart White's beleaguered forces for its object, will probably be fought between now and Sunday. Sir Redvers Buller is supposed to have all his re-enforcements. His men and guns are now ready for the advance.

Dordrecht has been evacuated by the British, Capt. Montmorency retiring to Bird's siding, which is on the flank of Stormberg. Montmorency decamped upon the approach of a Boer commando numbering 2,000, but the war office claims that his move was not so much to get away from the Boers as to co-operate with Gen. Gatacre.

Col. Pilcher's force has evacuated Douglas and retreated to Belmont, taking the loyal inhabitants along. A considerable detachment from Gen. Cronje's army was sent westwards, but not far enough to come into contact with this column.

Extensive Boer Trenches.

Lord Methuen's cavalry scouting has developed the fact that the Boers' trenches extend some forty miles, far overlapping the British positions and making flank attacks exceedingly difficult. Military analysts affirm that the Boer trenches confronting Gen. Buller stretch away some seventeen miles, and that work upon them is pushed unremittingly.

Extent of Dutch Rising.

The extent of the Dutch rising may now be measured by taking a line from Prieska on the west, to Herschel or Barkly on the east. Along the whole of this line, except at points actually occupied by the British, the population seems for the most part hostile.

Naval Guns for the Front.

Sixty-two naval guns have been removed from British warships at the Cape and taken to the front. They are mostly 4.7-inch guns and twelve-pounders.

Enthusiasm in the Colonies.

FORT ATKINSON D. A. R. MEETS

Members in Costume at the Chapter's First Colonial Reception

Fort Atkinson, Wis., Jan. 5.—The Fort Atkinson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gave their first colonial reception and ball on the 29th of December. Many were present from abroad and it was voted a great financial success. Although the Fort Atkinson chapter is the youngest in the state its organization dating back less than a year, it promises to be a strong society, and a prominent factor in the work of the D. A. R. in Wisconsin.

Cape Town, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—The Durban prize court released the steamer Meshona, one of the three vessels carrying American flour and other goods which were seized by the British at Delagoa bay. The Meshona's cargo, however, was warehoused pending an admiralty trial.

London, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—It is understood here that Secretary Hay has informed Ambassador Choate that the United States does not intend to wait upon the decision of the Durban admiralty court relative to the seizure of American flour, but wants England to make an immediate declaration of whether or not she intends to release or retain the flour.

London, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—A Cape Town dispatch says that it is rumored that the Boers were again defeated at Mafeking. It is said that eighty British soldiers stormed the Boer position and inflicted a heavy loss but left twenty-one of their number dead on the field. Thirty-three British were also wounded.

A GORY RIOT RAGES ON PARIS STREET

Strikers and Soldiers Clash and Many People Were Injured—Officers Put to Route.

Paris, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—A serious encounter between the strikers and the government troops took place at St. Eteine last evening. The police and mounted gendarmes who attempted to disperse the rioters were repulsed with club and stones. Then the dragons charged the mob, trampling many minors and number of women under foot. The strikers hurled paving stones at the cavalry, knocking the major of the squadron senseless and seriously injuring several troopers and gendarmes. One policeman who fell into the hands of the mob was nearly lynched. He was rescued in a dying condition. Reinforcements were dispatched to the scene of the disturbance, and order was finally restored.

AN OLD ENGINEER DEAD

John Shields Passes Away At Baraboo—Served Under Capt. Clark In the Civil War.

Baraboo, Wis., Jan. 5.—John Shields, one of the oldest engineers on the Northwestern road, died yesterday of cancer. He served under Capt. Clark, now of the United States battleship Oregon in the navy during the civil war. The funeral will be in charge of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Interment will be at Watertown, Wis.

GEN. M'ARTHUR IS PROMOTED

Sufficient Reasons Are Shown For Honoring the Wisconsin Soldiers.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 5.—In the executive session of the senate yesterday there was a brief discussion for the promotion of Gen. MacArthur. The discussion grew out of an inquiry by Senator Pittigrew as to what the general had done to entitle him to such distinction as had been conferred upon him. The inquiry was responded to by Senators Hawley, Carter and others, who explained that Gen. MacArthur's record had been uniformly good from the time of the civil war until and including the present campaign in the Philippines. After these explanations, the nomination was confirmed without an opposing vote.

WORK FOR REPEAL OF RACING LAW

MILWAUKEE CITIZENS' LEAGUE TALKS OF MATTER.

Claim Is Made That People Want To See the Trotters and Pacers, Although They Oppose the Running Tracks—Some Other Interesting State News.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—The indications are that Milwaukee will have trotting and pacing meetings and probably running meetings within the next year or two. Since the passage of the anti pool law the horse racing business in this state has been what the small boy would call "on the bum." When the running meeting was held at the State Fair park the farmers in some parts of the state howled and wanted a law passed that would prohibit running races, but they did not figure at the time that it would prevent the trotting and pacing events. That is what happened and since then the farmers have awakened to the fact that it was a bad thing all around. The usual race meets at the county fairs were of little account and in many instances they had to be given up entirely. This was due entirely to the inability of the farmers to buy pools on the races. Instead of many Wisconsin farmers coming to Milwaukee to do business in the summer they secured an extension to their transportation and visited Chicago, where they could take in the races at the same time. Had there been any meeting in Milwaukee these same men would have visited the Cream City.

Citizen's League to Act.

Now the Citizens' League of Milwaukee intends to take the matter up and an effort will be made to have the anti-pool law repealed. It is argued that race meets and such as that tend to improve the business of the city, as the farmers will go where they can be entertained if they cannot get it here. Of course if the law is killed a substitute will be offered that will be more acceptable to all classes. A law that would permit fifteen days of running in the spring and fifteen in the fall would be unwise. Trotting meets could be arranged at will, as only a limited number of days would pay no matter what the attraction.

There are thousands of dollars invested in horse raising in this state, but the big stock farms are disappearing owing to the obnoxious anti-pool law.

Junior "Prom" on Feb. 16.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 5.—The junior "Prom" will be held on Feb. 16, in the university armory, and it is proposed to make it a more elaborate function than ever before. John Hand's band of Chicago will probably be engaged for the function.

Revive Real Estate Board.

Milwaukee, Jan. 5.—The old real estate board is likely to be revived. The project was discussed informally at a meeting of prominent real estate men in the office of the Citizens' Business League yesterday afternoon, and the sentiment was strongly in favor of such a course.

THE CITY FATHERS CALLED TO COURT

Mayor Rose, City Clerk Schuengel, and Twenty-five Aldermen to Decide Themselves.

Milwaukee, Jan. 5.—Mayor Rose, City Clerk Schuengel and the twenty-five aldermen who voted for the street railway ordinance in the common council Tuesday and thereby passed that measure, had chance today to explain to Judge Ludwig why they are not in contempt of court for their proceedings. An order directed against those named to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt was issued late yesterday afternoon and placed in the hands of deputy sheriffs to serve. The order was issued on motion of Attorney Timlin, who represents the opponents of the ordinance in the injunction proceedings now before Judge Ludwig.

Mr. Timlin asked for an order including besides Mayor Rose, City Clerk Schuengel, and the twenty-five aldermen, all the counsel of these defendants and the street railway company. Mr. Timlin held that the attorneys had no right to appear in court until they had purged themselves of contempt.

Judge Ludwig said that in his opinion the attorneys were hardly in contempt of court and their names would be left out of the order which the court directed Mr. Timlin to draw. Judge Ludwig then ordered that proceedings in the injunction case be suspended until further order of the court. There are indications that the suspension may be continued until the defendants have purged themselves of contempt.

WISCONSIN MEN ALL PRESENT

Washington, D. C., Jan. 5.—All the members of the Wisconsin congressional delegation have arrived here and were in attendance upon the session yesterday. Representative Cooper, chairman of the committee on Insular Affairs, spent some time in looking up questions concerning matters to come before the committee, the first meeting of which will probably be held on Saturday.

SAY THAT CORBETT IS NOT THE MAN

PEOPLE TESTIFY IN BEHALF OF THE ACCUSED.

Woman Living Ten Blocks From the Cheney Home, Says Corbett Was at Her Home at 9:45 O'clock, and the Shooting Was Done Five Minutes Later.

Racine, Wis., Jan. 5.—Not in years has a criminal case attracted so much attention in Racine county as that of the state of Wisconsin against Henry T. Corbett, charged with assault and intent to kill the Rev. David B. Cheney. The crowds were larger than on the previous day and the majority of the spectators ladies. When the case was called the state rested and the defense introduced testimony. It was all of a character to prove that Corbett was not the right man and that at the time of the assault on Mr. Cheney he was at least ten blocks away from the pastor's home soliciting orders for portraits and that he carried samples of four large portraits in his hands. The statement was made by Attorney Nelson, assistant of Attorney M. Walker, that Corbett would be placed on the stand and that he would tell of his movements from the time he left the boarding house on Mead street at 9 o'clock on the morning of December 6, to 12 o'clock, and that it would be a clear and convincing statement.

Mrs. C. M. Stimmets of 507 Broadway, Milwaukee, was the first witness for the prisoner. It was in effect that she had known Corbett for about one year. He left her home and came to Racine to solicit for orders. Miss Barbara Lersch having promised him some work. He sent a note to her that he would be back Thursday. In regard to Johnson, a partner of Corbett, Mrs. Stimmets said that Johnson was in Milwaukee on that day and also in the evening and the description of the man wanted did not tally with the least with Johnson. She said Corbett appeared like a man of business and was always home at night.

Peter Lersch, John Lonergan, G. H. Turner, Albert Gillen, John Williams, E. T. Billings, Louis Morganson, Mrs. Weinen, Mrs. Brotherton, H. Stone, Mrs. Hugh Miller, Mrs. N. Krouder and Mrs. David Bloom testified in behalf of the defendant. Their testimony was introduced to show that Corbett could not be the man as Mrs. Cheney testified that the shooting occurred about 9:50 o'clock.

It is the general belief, however, that Corbett will be bound over for trial.

BANISHMENT EDICT IS PUT IN EFFECT

Deroulede and Buffet Are Escorted to the Belgian Frontier—No Demonstration is Made.

Paris, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—Deroulede and M. Buffet, who were sentenced to ten years banishment from France, were today escorted to the Belgian frontier. There was no demonstration on the part of the people, although scenes of disorder had been predicted.

30 PER CENT. DIVIDEND

Creditors of the Defunct Stoughton Bank Get the First Payment On Their Claims.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 5.—A hearing was held by Judge Siebecker in the circuit court on the report of Receiver G. E. Roe of the defunct Dane county bank, Stoughton. The court ordered a first dividend of 30 per cent. for undisputed claims, which will be paid in about a week. Ben E. Wait of Stoughton will be appointed to succeed Receiver Roe, who will soon go to New York.

How Quickly We Can Think.

Prof. Richet, in his lecture on "Nerve Vibrations," said that the rate of transmission of nerve impulses could not be more than ten or twelve times a second. Prof. Richet states that if one tried to think a set of words in succession he could never pass that speed, and could not receive more rapid succession of sensations on the same organ. This period, then, might be called the psychological "unit of time." If the rapidity were greater, sound, electricity, and light would be perceived as independent undulations, not continuous sensations; were it slower, one would see the motion of the hour hand of a watch and the growth of a tree.

TAX PAYERS MORE PROMPT

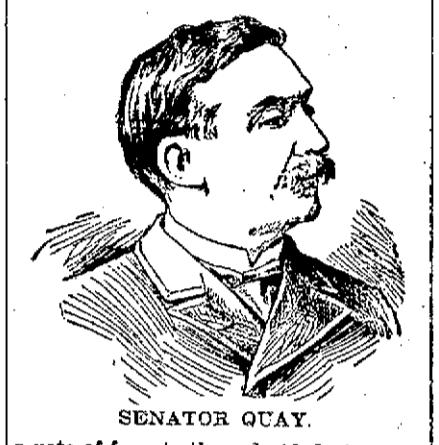

City Treasurer Fathers Says That Tax Sales Will Be Fewer

Present indications are that fewer pieces of city property will be sold this year at the tax sale than in former years. City Treasurer Fathers says that the tax payers in all portions of the city have been prompt this year in their payments indicating that money is more plentiful. City taxes run until February 28. People this year are having little trouble in meeting not only their city tax but their state and county tax as well.

QUAY BARRED FROM SENATE BY A REPORT

Washington, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—Matthew Stanley Quay is a closed incident. The senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, today, by a vote of four to three decided that Mr. Quay was not entitled to admission to the senate by appointment of the governor of Pennsylvania.

Washington, Jan. 5 p. m.—[Special Telegram]—The news of the rescue of the American prisoners is confirmed. Lieut. Gilmore and the other American prisoners who were in the hands of the insurgents were captured by Col. Hare's men and are now in Vigan. They are expected to arrive at Manila shortly.

Washington, Jan. 5.—[Special Cablegram]—General Otis wired this morning that Col. Hare of the Thirty-third Infantry, had released all the American prisoners now in the hands of the insurgents, including Lieut. Gilmore.

In a later dispatch General Otis said:

"Colonels Hare and Howe have arrived at Vigan, Northwest Luzon, with all the American prisoners. Their successful pursuit was a remarkable achievement. Affairs in Luzon, north of Manila are greatly improved."

While the dispatch is somewhat indefinite, the war department officials take it to mean that all the American prisoners in the hands of the enemy have been recaptured. This includes the survivors of Lieut. Gilmore's party, and the signal corps men recently captured by the Filipinos.

A HOT FIRE RAGES AT FAIRFIELD, WIS.

WEBBER'S STORE, RESIDENCE, AND SHED DESTROYED.

Blaze Was Caused by an Explosion—Modern Woodmen Lose Their Effects—Dwelling House and Nearly All Its Contents a Total Loss—Insurance About Half of Damage

Fairfield, Wis., Jan. 5.—The most destructive fire our village has ever experienced occurred on Saturday night at 11:30 o'clock when Mr. Webber's store building, residence and a building for storing machinery were reduced to ashes.

Soon after retiring Mr. Webber heard an explosion and on going to the door found the interior of his store in flames, which spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save anything from his stock of general merchandise. The post office occupied the front of the building.

Nearly all of the mail matter was saved, but most of the fixtures and records of the office were lost. The building was two stories in height, the upper room being fitted up for a hall and was rented by the Modern Woodmen, who lost all of their effects. The dwelling house stood quite close to the store and it was but a short time before both buildings with their contents were destroyed.

Nearly all of the bedding was saved, but carpets, clothing and other household articles were lost.

A strong west wind sent burning shingles across the street and fired the buildings of J. T. Cutler, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. The carriages and nearly all the machinery in the south building was removed in fair condition. The loss is a serious one to Mr. Webber. He purchased the property from B. Conry, paying $3,000, had made many improvements and added considerable to his stock of general merchandise, all of which is a total loss. The property was insured from one half to two thirds of its value. On Wednesday Mr. Webber forced open his safe and found its contents, consisting of cash, valuable papers and postage stamps to be in good condition. The loss is also a heavy one to the Modern Woodmen as they had their rooms nicely fitted up, newly papered and painted, and were in a flourishing condition, but they are a plucky tribe and may conclude to build a hall of their own.

THE STATE RESTS IN CRAIGO CASE

THE DEFENDANT TESTIFIES IN HIS OWN BEHALF.

Attorney M. G. Jeffris cross-examines the Complainant Witness, But Judge Dunwiddie Excludes the Evidence Sought. Sensational Conversations Are Thus Barred Out.

Monroe, Wis., Jan. 5.—Yesterday was a busy one in the trial of the Craigo case in the Circuit court. Dr. R. B. Clark, the complaining witness, was first put on the stand by the state, and his testimony was followed by that of a dozen other witnesses. The state then rested and Thurman Craigo, who is charged with assault with intent to murder, was then called.

The state examined Dr. Clark in relation to his meeting with Craigo, and the particulars of the shooting. Attorney Jeffris took the witness for cross-examination and an effort to reflect upon his credibility as a witness by impeaching his moral character generally, was overruled on objection by the state.

The defense insisted upon its right to probe to the fullest the record of the witness up to the time of his taking the stand, but the court was firm and refused to admit any evidence that had no bearing on act of defendant. This excluded all evidence relative to conversations which the defense sought to introduce and which was of a very sensational order.

Say Clark Retreated

What was purported by the defense to be the substance of assertions made by the witness in conservations with the defendant before the shooting was flatly contradicted by the witness.

Seven of the witnesses swore they saw the shooting and the state succeeded in showing that Dr. Clark had retreated behind a tree and was followed up by Craigo just before the shot was fired.

After Craigo's direct examination by Attorney Jeffris he was cross examined at length by Burr W. Jones, in relation to the shooting, his knowledge of what he was doing and his intent and purposes. These points were quite clearly established by the state.

Tell About Shooting.

Craigo said that the revolver happened to be in his buggy, and it was used only after Dr. Clark had reflected upon the character of his family, and the shot was further induced by Clark making a move toward his hip pocket, for the evident purpose of drawing a weapon.

Craigo, according to Clark's testimony, drew his revolver twice and lowered it the first time upon Clark, saying that he was a coward to draw a gun on a man who was unarmed. The words that Craigo says passed between the two men at the time were denied by Clark. The men had been on unfriendly terms for some time previous to the assault, and Clark, who made a professional call at Craigo's house a short time before, was made to leave on Craigo's orders and threat to kill him.

SAY THE BRIDGE IS UNSAFE

Taylor & Morris Company Employees Learn Something While Removing Iron.

The Taylor & Morris company recently bought of the Water company the iron supports formerly used to hold the water pipe on the Fourth avenue bridge. While employees of the company were removing the iron they discovered the fact that the bridge was in very bad condition. One of the men said today:

"The bridge is in bad shape. Some of the piles are broken square off, and some of the 'headers' hardly reach the edge of the pile they rest on. The iron supports used to hold the water pipe in no way strengthened the bridge, and the removal of this iron in no way weakened it. The city had tried to brace the railing against the iron but had done the work in such a way that no strength resulted. The bridge is in bad shape, but the removal of the iron as I before stated, has nothing whatever to do with the matter."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lewis Knitting Company will be held in the office of the company on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, between the hours of 4 o'clock and 5 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of the election of a board of directors and the transaction of other proper business.

The time has come when people in Wisconsin feel the change. Many people in this city have given voluntary endorsement of the great change they have felt after using Morrow's Kid-ne-oids.

Kid-ne-oids will cure a lame back, kidney backache, urinary and kidney disorders, sleeplessness, restlessness and nervousness. We always like to give reference as to the merits of Morrow's Kid-ne-oids, and this time refer you to Mr. John Kohiman, works at the Bain Wazon Factory, and who lives at 316 Division street, Kenosha, Wis., says: "I suffered from disordered kidneys for some time past. I had a dull, heavy pain across my kidneys and it hurt my back to bend over or straighten up quickly. My urine was of a dark red color. I heard about Morrow's Kid-ne-oids and secured a package and took them according to directions, and in three days was completely relieved of kidney backache, and restored my urine to its natural color. I will continue to use Kid-ne-oids and will recommend them to my fellow workmen."

Morrow's Kid-ne-oids are not pills, but yellow tablets, and sell at fifty cents a box by all druggists and by The People's Drug Co.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING.

Some of the Activities Engaged
In by Members of the "Unquiet Sex."

BY ANNETTE CRAWFORD.

Miss Mabel Hay Barrows has made for herself a peculiar and profitable place in the world. She trains school and college students to produce Homer and Virgil on the stage, and her success borders on what the theatrical profession would call sensational. Teaching the delivery of the lines is but a small part of her duties. Miss Barrows must needs instruct young athletes to box and wrestle after the old Greek manner—quite different from that of today—to hurl the discus; to dance the old Greek dances; to throw the ball while balancing, leaping, turning and wheeling; to chant the weird, sweet music of the Delphic lyre with which the play opens, etc. This means the most arduous work day and night for at least six weeks. Miss Barrows has met with great success in Chicago, where she utilized a number of native Greeks and Italians for minor characters, giving a strikingly realistic character to alternate performances of "The Return of Odysseus" and "The Flight of Agamemnon."

Mrs. J. H. Rowland of Lawrence, Mich., runs the engine of her husband's planing mill and in an emergency attends to the ripsaw and the turning lathe. She has been sole engineer of the mill for several years and enjoys her work. Before going into this business she raised a large family of children.

Mrs. Catharine Westcott Romney edited the first daily newspaper in Durango, Colo., when the place had every characteristic of a frontier mining town. One day she published a severe editorial criticism of a street battle in which some of the Durango people were engaged. The next morning two men called around, loaded up with Winchesters and smaller arms, and asked who wrote the editorial. Mrs. Romney cheerfully claimed the honor. The men were evidently nonplussed at having a woman to deal with in such a case. They demanded that the offensive remarks should be taken back, and when the editor refused they made threats against the safety of the office. The newspaper woman stood her ground, but after the paper was out that day she called on a gentleman who she felt certain was a member of the vigilance committee. No one knew who was on the vigilance committee, because no one wanted to know. But Mrs. Romney, being a newspaper woman, naturally had a pretty correct idea. So she called on her friend and mentioned, in a casual way, that her office had been threatened, and she would like to have it protected. It was protected, and the editorial was never taken back.

Sandwich men are a common sight in New York. They walk along busy thoroughfares with advertisements front and back, hence the name. A sympathetic sensation was recently created by the appearance of a sandwich woman in the shopping district. One day she disappeared, and it is believed she got a better job, but nobody knows. The policeman on the beat tells this story: "A rich lady who had just lost her mother saw that woman with the SANDWICH WOMAN, mackintosh sign on her, and she felt sorry for her and didn't know but she wanted to do something for her. If she was an old lady, like her mother, she'd help her. So she asked me to find out. I called the sandwich lady over one day and found out. No; she wouldn't do for the purpose. She didn't come up to requirements. Was she old, ugly, a bad lot? No, sirree! She took off her veil for me, and, sir, she was a mighty fine looking woman. Not to say pretty, but handsome. But she wouldn't do. She was too young. She said she had to do it, sir, to earn a living for herself and her daughter. I had her name and her daughter's name and where they lived, but I guess I must have thrown it away. She signed sort of and asked me to kind of look out for something better. She is the granddaughter of a governor of one of the states, but I didn't pay much attention which state it was. And she was refined and educated, and she told me that she was rich once, but her husband died, and she had to go out and earn a living for her daughter."

The superintendent of schools in Durango is Miss Emma M. Henry, a young woman of charming personality, who looks and acts like the highest type of society belle. She is a superior writer and talker and in politics a straight Democrat.

Mrs. John Vance Cheney is a champion of the "new education." "There is another. Years after the son of Miles Standish married a daughter of Priscilla and John Alden. There is a poetical justice about this that we always love to dwell on. A year or two ago I met a lady, a lineal descendant of Captain Miles Standish. She had heard of me and came to Oakland "just to shake hands" as she said, with a lineal descendant of John Alden. You may imagine how strangely we both felt.

Miles Standish, Priscilla and John Alden

Adler were invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge.

"About two years ago my health became very poor from female weakness and troubles peculiar to my sex; in fact I was so weak and feeble that I was unable to do but little work," writes Mrs. John Alden of Batleyton, Culham Co., England. "I decided to buy a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and gradually, I took two bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and one vial of the 'Pellets' and these proved to be all I needed. As I had a full stout and well after taking Dr. Pierce's medicine and have been doing my work with more satisfaction than I had ever felt before."

CHRISTMAS COOKERY.

Turkey and Its Sauce In Different Appetizing Ways.

Variety as a sauce seems just as desirable in the case of the traditional Christmas turkey as in the other affairs of life. This fact may recommend the following directions from The Designer to the consideration of progressive cooks: Lard the breast of the turkey with strips of larding bacon in regular lines, then cover it with thin slices of lemon; butter a sheet of paper and wrap the bird in it, roasting it for an hour and basting it carefully. After this remove the paper and lemon and roast again for half an hour or longer, according to size; allow it to brown nicely and at last baste it with butter. To make chestnut forcemeat peel two dozen chestnuts, throw them into boiling water, boil for ten minutes, after which drain them and take off the under skin. Return them to the pan with sufficient milk or milk and water to cover and simmer them till tender. Have ready a medium sized onion boiled soft, a tablespoonful of chopped parsley and two ounces of fresh butter slightly warmed. Drain and mash the chestnuts; mix with the other ingredients and a plentiful seasoning of salt and pepper. The onion should be chopped. Many people prefer the chestnut forcemeat mixed with pork sausagemeat as being more tasty. When this is the case, take equal quantities of each.

As sauce for the foregoing prepare about 20 chestnuts as before or roast them till tender. If roasted, the skins and under skin are removed after cooking. Mash them and mix with an ounce of butter, a teaspoonful of granulated sugar, the strained juice of a lemon and seasoning of salt, pepper and grated nutmeg. Put this mixture into a stewpan with one-half pint of milk and one-quarter pint of cream; stir till it thickens and is smooth, then serve in a gravy boat.

For turkey in Turkish style wash well and partially boil one cupful of rice in boiling water to which has been added salt to taste. Drain off the water when the rice begins to soften and mix with the latter 12 French chestnuts which have been blanched and chopped, a quarter of a pound of currants and two ounces of almonds, also blanched and chopped. Season to taste with salt, pepper and a dash of cinnamon. Now melt half a cupful of butter and stir into the mixture. Use this to stuff the turkey and baste often. Serve with brown gravy or the chestnut sauce described above.

To make celery sauce slice the best part of four heads of young celery in small pieces and boil in salt and water for 20 minutes. Then drain and put into a clean saucepan, covering them with white or vegetable stock. Add a teaspoonful of salt, a blade of mace and stew all together until tender. Mix two ounces of butter and a dessert-spoonful of flour. When this is quite smooth, stir into a cupful of good cream milk (milk may be used instead of cream) and mix this in with the celery and stock. Make hot for about a quarter of an hour, but do not let it boil.

Pretty Fancies In Stocks. The black velvet ribbon stock and bow with long ends is the most prominent fad on the streets, according to the New York Herald. It takes two yards of ribbon, and the No. 12 size is the most popular. It is wound around the neck twice, with a very small bow at the throat and very long ends. The crosspiece at the neck usually holds a fancy jeweled brooch.

Another black velvet ribbon fancy is to wear with any light tinted stock a very narrow velvet. This is about half an inch wide and is worn at the foot of the stock and simply crossed and fastened with a little brooch in front. The contrast with the lighter colors is very pretty.

A Holiday Gift. A novel and pretty gift is the receptacle for holding the daily newspapers shown in the illustration from The American Queen. It is easily made and when finished is a thing of beauty. Two pieces of stiff cardboard are required. The one to be used for the back of the rack measures 13 by 14 inches, and the other for the front must be 9 by 14 inches. Take gray or fawn colored linen and cover neatly the two pieces of board (after the designs of holly and mistletoe have been previously embroidered), fasten the linen to the cardboard with glue or paste and back each piece with either linen or red surah silk to match the holly berries. Now sew the two linen covered pieces of cardboard together at the lower part of the rack, but not at the sides, as these are left open to receive the newspapers. At the two upper corners of the pocket is fastened a red ribbon, which is tacked to the back part of the frame and tied in a bow with long, flowing ends. At each corner of the rack is placed a metal fastener (which can be procured from any art embroidery store, or bows of ribbon may be used in place of the metal corners). The design of holly and mistletoe is embroidered in red, green and white. The lettering is outlined

MORE THAN KEEPING EVEN

Under the above heading the Des Moines State Register publishes the following clear and concise statement of facts:

"Despite the predictions of the democrats a few years ago the government revenue thus far during the present fiscal year has exceeded the government expense. No wonder the opponents of the republican party and the policy of protection turn from the question of tariff and begin howling about the trusts. They deceived the people in 1896 with their lies, and now in an effort to divert the public mind from those lies they howl about something else. At the end of the first quarter of the fiscal year a surplus of $2,000,000 is shown. The government for the three months has been $17,000,000 more than what it was during the same period of last year, and the expenditures have fallen off $45,000,000. The customs are yielding from $690,000 to $1,000,000 a day and internal revenue nets $1,000,000 each year, both showing an aggregate gain over the same period of last year of $5,000,000. The War Department is spending an average of $12,500,000 each month, while the monthly expense of our navy is $5,000,000; we are carrying on a war on the other side of the world where we are taking care of a great army of American soldiers as no nation has ever cared for its soldiers before; we are adding battleships, cruisers and torpedo boats to the navy in a manner that is attracting the attention of all nations and yet we show a cash balance and surplus for the past three months, the first quarter of the new fiscal year. More and more each day is the proof furnished that the Protective Tariff that bears the name of the late Mr. Dingley, one of the greatest and bravest statesmen America ever produced, is fully capable of providing for all the expenses of our government in times of peace, and more and more each day it is being demonstrated that the finances of this country were never in better hands."

A paragraph in an exchange says that under the Belgian law unmarried men over 25 have one vote, married men and widowers with families have two votes and priests and other persons of position and education of three votes. Severe penalties are imposed on those who fail to vote. That arrangement may go in Belgium, but there would be trouble if it were a law in the United States. The man with three votes would be a prince, while the man with only one would be scorned even by the baserers who work at the polls.

Hamilton P. Richardson, of Milwaukee, formerly of this city, is named by the Evening Wisconsin as one of the Cream City candidates for a position on the State Tax Commission. Mr. Richardson has always been a close student and has given economic and constitutional research much attention. There is no question as to his qualifications for the place and no mistake would be made if he should be given the place.

The Edward P. Allis Company, Milwaukee, Wis., recently received an order from the Glasgow Corporation Tramways of Glasgow, Scotland, for two vertical compound engines, each of 4,000 horse-power. This order was placed in the face of the most severe competition from English and Scotch builders, but the Wisconsin concern could figure to close for any of them.

McKinley Will Not Interfere. Washington, Jan. 5.—In addition to indirect suggestions from the Transvaal government for the mediation of the United States to bring an end to the war, Secretary Hay has been besieged with requests from foreign and domestic bodies and American citizens to use the influence of the United States to put a stop to further hostilities. The president has no intention of interfering in the war until Great Britain indicates that she, too, desires the aid of the friendly offices of this government. It is the present understanding of officials that there is no likelihood of the British government requesting the president to interfere, and it is apparent that she proposes to continue the war until the subjugation of the Boers is completed.

Senator Beveridge has long held his silence. For this reason, if no other his speech in the senate next Tuesday will be awaited with interest.

If the drainage canal results in the cleansing of the Chicago river it will certainly be equal to all other demands made upon it.

DECISIVE CONFLICT NEAR.

Battle at the Tugela Can Not Long Be Delayed.

Troops at Sunnyside have aroused great enthusiasm in the colonies. Many officers are offering to serve in the second contingent.

Campaign Planned at Potsdam.

Paris, Jan. 5.—A Russian officer named Eugene Haupick declares that the Transvaal war will be the tomb of Great Britain. He asserts that the whole campaign was carefully prepared at Potsdam, as well as the strategy planned for the Boer generals to execute. Hence, he concludes disaster is inevitable for British arms, owing to the natural advantages of the Boers, the incapacity of the British commanders and lack of patriotism on the part of the troops, who, he declares, are only poor mercenaries.

May Impress All Whites.

Cape Town, Jan. 5.—Intelligence has been received here from the Free State to the effect that President Steyn has issued a proclamation declaring that every white man, irrespective of nationality, is to be considered a burgher and is liable to be compelled to fight for the defense of the country.

Fighting Near Colesburg.

London, Jan. 5.—Meager dispatches given out at the war office indicate that fighting is in progress in the vicinity of Colesburg. A dispatch from Orange river announced that re-enforcements of infantry and artillery had been sent to Gen. French from De Aar.

New Admiralty Program.

London, Jan. 5.—The admiralty has adopted a program embracing the stationing of small squadrons at Durban, Simon's bay, Port Elizabeth, Lourenco Marques, St. Vincent in the Cape Verde islands, and Cape Town and sending an additional ship or two to Aden.

Permits Zulus to Fight.

Durban, Jan. 5.—The government, in response to the petitions of the Zulus asking to be allowed to fight against the Boers, has now permitted a considerable number of the natives to arm themselves in self-defense.

Order Out More Militia.

London, Jan. 5.—A royal order has been issued directing the embodiment of sixteen additional battalions of militia.

MCKINLEY'S MEDIATION ASKED.

Belgium Take the Lead in Pleading for Arbitration in War.

Brussels, Jan. 5.—Senator Lejeune, former minister of justice and now member of the Belgian council of state, presided at the meeting in this city Thursday of the committee recently formed to organize a movement in Belgium in support of an address to President McKinley, appealing to him to mediate in favor of peace between Great Britain and the Transvaal.

After a long discussion it was decided to invite the public to send letters in support of the movement to the secretary of the league, and, from next Sunday, to place petitions for signatures in all the cafes in Brussels and the provincial towns.

The petition to President McKinley reads as follows: "M. Le President: Rightly moved by the bloody and terrible struggle in South Africa between two of the most civilized peoples of the world, the most pressing appeal to you alone can be made. They beg you to fulfil the sacred duty of human brotherhood."

McKinley Will Not Interfere.

Washington, Jan. 5.—In addition to indirect suggestions from the Transvaal government for the mediation of the United States to bring an end to the war, Secretary Hay has been besieged with requests from foreign and domestic bodies and American citizens to use the influence of the United States to put a stop to further hostilities. The president has no intention of interfering in the war until Great Britain indicates that she, too, desires the aid of the friendly offices of this government. It is the present understanding of officials that there is no likelihood of the British government requesting the president to interfere, and it is apparent that she proposes to continue the war until the subjugation of the Boers is completed.

Whaling by Electricity.

It appears that electricity is to be used in killing whales. A dynamo is to be placed on a whaling ship. A big reel of insulated wire will be carried in a boat when a whale is sighted. One end of the wire is connected with the dynamo and at the other end will be a hard rubber stick attached to a piece of metal twenty-four inches long and one inch in diameter, sharpened at the end to penetrate the flesh of the whale.

At the close of the speech the senate went into executive session, adjourning at 8:20 o'clock until next Monday.

GOLD TO BE UNIT OF VALUE

Concurrence of Leading Commercial Nations Must Be Secured to Maintain Fixed Ratio Between the Two Metals—The Philippines.

Washington, Jan. 5.—At the opening of Thursday's senate session Mr. Beveridge (Ind.) presented the following resolution:

"That the Philippine Islands are territory belonging to the United States, that it is the intention of the United States to retain them as such and to establish and maintain such governmental control throughout the archipelago as the situation may demand."

Mr. Beveridge asked that the resolution lie upon the table until next Tuesday, when he will speak upon it.

The senate then, at 1:55 p.m., took up the financial bill, and Mr. Aldrich spoke on the bill in part as follows:

"The general purpose of the bill is to declare anew that gold is the monetary standard of the United States; to establish confidence in the intention and ability of our government to give the greatest possible measure of stability in value to its currency, and to provide the means for securing for it at all times an equal purchasing power with gold; to lighten in every possible way the burdens imposed upon the taxpayer by existing public obligations and to strengthen the public credit.

"The first section contains a clear and definite declaration that the gold dollar is and shall continue to be the standard unit of value; a new and more emphatic pledge on the part of the United States that all forms of money, it may issue or coin shall be at all times maintained at an equality of value with the gold coin adopted as the standard, and a specific provision that United States notes and treasury notes shall, upon presentation to the treasury, be redeemed in standard gold coin. If it is possible to secure permanence of relative value to gold and silver coins with the free coinage of both metals at a fixed ratio, this permanence can only be secured by concurrent action of all the leading commercial nations.

"The second section provides for a reserve fund of $150,000,000 in gold to secure the prompt and certain redemption of outstanding United States notes and treasury notes. This fund is increased $50,000,000 over that which is now held by the treasury for redemption purposes.

"In case the gold in the fund shall fall below $100,000,000 then it becomes the duty of the secretary of the treasury, under certain conditions, to sell United States bonds, the proceeds to be used to restore the fund to the maximum amount by paying the gold so obtained into the general fund of the treasury and then exchanging for it an equal amount of notes which have been redeemed from the reserve fund.

"The amount of silver certificates in circulation on Dec. 1, 1899, was $394,292,800, and of standard silver dollars $78,232,454, a total of $472,526,254. This amount will be gradually increased by the silver coinage which will take place under the provisions of the act of June 13, 1898. Both silver dollars and silver certificates are by law receivable for all public dues, and as long as the ordinary receipts of the government are more than $600,000,000 per annum it is evident that silver certificates are not likely to go to a discount.

"The third section makes it the duty of the secretary of the treasury, as fast as standard silver dollars are coined, as required by law, from the bullion purchased under the act of July 14, 1890, to retire and cancel an equal amount of treasury notes, and provides that upon the cancellation of the notes silver certificates shall be issued against the silver dollars so coined.

"The fourth section authorizes and directs the secretary of the treasury to receive deposits of gold coin and to issue gold certificates thereon in denominations of not less than $20.

"The fifth section provides that no United States notes or treasury notes shall hereafter be issued or released in denominations of less than $10. It also provides that no silver certificates of a higher denomination than $10 shall be issued.

"The sixth section gives to the secretary of the treasury authority to convert a portion of the national debt into bonds bearing 2 per cent interest. The proposition contemplates a profitable anticipation of interest payments and consequent reduction of the public debt.

"We believe it is impossible to overestimate the advantages which would accrue to the United States from placing its national debt upon a 2 per cent basis and keeping its obligations issued at this rate at par in the markets of the world.

"The seventh section provides that upon the deposit of United States bonds by any national banking association in the manner provided by law such association shall be entitled to receive circulating notes equal to the par value of the bonds deposited. It also provides that any national banking association now having bonds on deposit shall be entitled to the same privilege.

"The eighth section provides that any national banking association having on deposit as security for its circulating notes bonds of the United States bearing interest at 2 per cent per annum shall pay a tax upon such circulating notes of one-half of 1 per cent annually, instead of the tax of 1 per cent now imposed by law."

At the close of the speech the senate went into executive session, adjourning at 8:20 o'clock until next Monday.

SPEAKER CRITICISES PUBLIC LIBRARY

UNATTRACTIVE IN ITS PRESENT CONDITION.

Miss Marvin Gave Interesting Address This Morning Before Seventy-Five Women—Says That Little Expense Would Accomplish Much—Committees Will Look Into the Question.

Seventy-five members of Women's clubs and classes, literary and social, of this city, gathered at East Side Odd Fellows' hall parlors at 9 o'clock this morning and for an hour and a half listened to a profitable address delivered by Miss Marvin, representative of the State Library commission.

Miss Marvin spoke on the betterment of the Janesville public library and told how the women of the different social clubs should remedy the present difficulty.

Miss Marvin stated that the Janesville public library is now well equipped with books but that the quarters are too small and unattractive. The furnishings of the room should be such as to give the place good cheer and make it inviting. The windows, she says, should have curtains that would shut from view the surrounding factory buildings and mills. There should be separate quarters in the library for children where they would be expected to go and secure their books. Pictures should be placed about the library and all uninviting portions of the room made attractive. Miss Marvin says that all these improvements can be carried out with but little extra expense. There are hundreds of people in the city who do not take advantage of the public library just because they have never been educated to realize its advantages.

In speaking of the working men of the city who toil from early morning until late at night in the mills and factories of the city, Miss Marvin strongly recommends that an effort should be made in Janesville to supply the working masses with books which should be brought to the home of the laboring man free of cost. In this way she believes that much good could be accomplished and a class of men furnished with good books that they would be otherwise unable to secure.

At the close of the meeting the speaker suggested that committees be formed in each club to talk over the plan. Miss Marvin intends to return to Janesville in two weeks at which time she will meet the committees in order that some definite action may be taken in remedying what Miss Marvin now claims to be the shortcomings of the Janesville library.

BUT LITTLE DOING IN LEAF MARKET

SMALL AMOUNT OF OLD LEAF IN GROWERS' HANDS.

Deliveries of the New Crop Are Coming in Steadily, and Large Quantities Are Received Daily—Most Farmers Have Their Crops Ready To Handle.

So far as the movement of the new crop is concerned business is slack, buyers are not riding much since the New Year began and the transactions that come to notice limited, says The Edgerston Reporter. The few sales reaching us indicate that former prices prevail:

Austin Holton, 10¢ at 9c.

Peter Mylnd, 8¢ at 8c.

C. Gullickson, 8¢ at 8c.

John Nichols, 14¢ at 7c.

Daniel Pierce, 7¢ at 8c.

Daniel Pierce, 7¢ at 6c.

John J. Rue, 11¢ at 8c.

Simon Berg, 5¢ at 7c.

An occasional lot of old leaf is lifted though but little remains now in growers' hands. Jokum Johnson sold 48 cases '98 to Kittleson at 9 cents. Henry Gilman sold 52 cases of '98 to Pomeroy & Pelton. The most important sale of the week among packers is that of about 1,000cs lot by George Rumrill to C. F. Tallard for the account of the new Havana-American Co. O. K. Roe of Stoughton sold 500cs of '98 to the Rosenwald firm of New York.

The deliveries of the new crop are now coming pretty steadily at the ware houses, which are receiving large quantities daily. Some tobacco is still hanging in the sheds, but the bulk of farmers have their crop stripped and ready for delivery.

The shipments out of storage indicate that old leaf is moving readily in the eastern markets. Fully forty carloads, 143 cases, have gone forward from this market to all points since last report.

GERMANY'S STRONG PROTEST

Country incensed by British Seizure of Vessels.

REPARATION IS DEMANDED.

Emperor William Says That with a Big Navy He Would Avenge the Insult to the Flag—No Alarm Is Felt at London—Washington Opinion.

Berlin, Jan. 5.—Still another German vessel has been seized by the British, and the entire empire is aroused at what is termed a continuance of outrages and insults to the country's flag. It is openly declared that only a knowledge of Germany's weakness on the sea permits Great Britain to adopt such an illegal course, and that were the Kaiser's navy stronger the British government would not dare to interfere with the country's commerce.

Even the emperor shares in the popular indignation, which demands prompt reparation. This time it is the imperial mail steamer General which has been seized. The vessel is detained at Aden and occupied by British troops, with the object of searching her cargo, which is to be discharged.

The seizure of the General has considerably aggravated the situation here and the indignation against Great Britain is intensified. The government is still intensely endeavoring to preserve correct official relations, but Great Britain will do well to hasten to make the amende honorable to Germany.

On absolutely reliable authority it is learned that Emperor William is now thoroughly aroused by the repeated seizures of vessels, nor one of which, he has been assured, is guilty of carrying contraband. He regards the seizures as high-handed proceedings which Great Britain would not have dared to undertake if the German navy were more powerful than it is. His majesty has, therefore, instructed Count von Buelow, the foreign secretary, to demand exact and full reparation for the outrage done to the German flag.

No answer that is considered satisfactory has as yet been received from London and, according to advices here, none is to be expected for several days longer.

Strong Protest Sent to London.

Thursday's news, however, induced the German government to send another and more strongly worded protest to London.

Indignation meetings have been called by branches of the Colonial society. The German press, with hardly an exception, thunders against Great Britain. Even the semi-official Berliner Post says: "It cannot be denied that the indignation aroused by the willfulness of the seizures by British commanders is spreading in wider and wider circles."

Company Carries No Contraband.

The German East African company, whose offices are at Hamburg, publishes a statement in the Hamburger Nachrichten, saying that immediately on the declaration of war the company voluntarily refused to forward to South Africa two consignments of arms already on board their vessels, simply to avoid trouble and delay in connection with the other portions of the cargoes. A copy of the manifest of the Bundesrath has been published, showing that her cargo did not contain contraband.

As Viewed in Washington.

Washington, Jan. 5.—It is apparent to the authorities that Great Britain cannot continue interrupting international trade with neutral territory without involving herself in serious complications. So far as this government is concerned, it is disposed to deal leniently with the London government, while at the same time safeguarding the interests of American citizens, but it is believed in view of the present state of feeling in Germany and other continental nations of Europe that the continuance of the policy of capturing foreign merchant vessels may be productive of intervention, which Great Britain is desirous of avoiding.

Will Not Quarrel with Germany.

London, Jan. 5.—Despite the outcry of the German press, the outcome of the seizure of the Bundesrath continues to be regarded here with equanimity. It is believed the government has the absolute assurance of the German ambassador that his foreign office will not be stampeded into taking offensive action. If the trial court finds, as seems likely, that the vessel carried contraband, the Bundesrath will be condemned, with Germany's approval. If otherwise, the British government will pay damages for unlawful detention.

Austrians Denounce England.

Vienna, Jan. 5.—Diplomats here seem to consider that Great Britain ought not to have searched a German steamer in the Suez canal.

The Wiener Allgemeine Zeitung says: "It looks as if Great Britain cared less for the cargo in question than for demonstrating before the world that, although most unlucky on the land, she is the unchanced mistress of the sea, a demonstration which will do more for the German navy than all the speeches of Emperor William."

GEN. MARSH IS ARRAIGNED.

Bail Set at $10,000 on Charges of Fraud and Embezzlement.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 5.—Gen. Arthur F. Marsh arrived here Thursday afternoon and was arraigned on the grand jury indictment, which charges him with fraud and embezzlement. Marsh explained that he was visiting in New York and knew nothing of his indictment until Tuesday. A plea of not guilty was entered and a bond given for Marsh's appearance in court next week. The court fixed the bail at $10,000. Gen. Marsh stoutly protests his innocence, denying any knowledge of irregularities in the sale and purchase of military stores by the auditor general.

PROMPT MEASURES TO BE ADOTTED TO PREVENT SPREAD OF DISEASE.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Prompt measures are being taken by the officials here to deal with the bubonic plague in the Philippines, and to prevent its introduction into the United States. An executive order has been issued by the war department placing the quarantine service of the Philippines in charge of the marine hospital service, and officers to manage that work will be detailed by the secretary of the treasury. A special set of instructions designed to prevent the introduction of the disease on the Pacific coast are also in preparation and will be issued soon.

OTIS SOON TO HAVE 65,000 MEN

ARRIVAL OF THE TRANSPORT GRANT TO INCREASE THE PHILIPPINE FORCES.

Washington, Jan. 5.—With the arrival of Manila of the transport Grant, which left San Francisco on the 21st ultimo with the Forty-eighth volunteer infantry (colored), Gen. Otis will have command of an effective force of about 65,000 men. The army now in the Philippines aggregates 62,500 men, of which 31,000 are regular troops and 31,500 are volunteers. With the arrival of the Grant the entire volunteer strength of 34,000 men will be in the Philippines.

PINGREE'S PLANS ALL TO FAIL.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 5.—Nothing of importance will be accomplished at this session of the legislature. Not a tax bill has been passed, and none will be, as both houses will adjourn Saturday. Gov. Pingree's resolution submitting to the people the question of municipal ownership and operation of public utilities was defeated in the house Friday, while the senate killed the bill passed by the house to tax the output of iron and copper mines. The house has passed bills repealing the tax clause of all special railroad charters and increasing the specific tax rates named in the general railroad law, but it is a foregone conclusion that all these will be pigeon-holed by the senate.

FOR UNION WITH DEMOCRATS.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 5.—A meeting of the populist state central committee was held last night preliminary to sessions of the three committees which constitute the fusion party in Nebraska. At the same time a conference attended by W. J. Bryan was held by populist national committeemen from western states, including Robt. of Iowa, Edmiston of Nebraska, Roselle of Missouri and Patterson of Colorado. A populist leader said the feeling in the west was favorable to fusion this year with the democrats on the national ticket, with Bryan as the nominee for both parties.

WILL BE DIXON'S LAST FIGHT.

New York, Jan. 5.—George Dixon, who for the last ten years has been champion of his class, will make his final appearance in the ring next Tuesday night at the Broadway Athletic club, when he meets Terry McGovern. Win or lose in his contest with the young Brooklynite, Dixon says he will retire from the ring. McGovern is still the favorite over Dixon at 10 to 6.

DISEASE SEEMS LIKE BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 5.—An Austrian named Maptur, who arrived here as a stowaway on the British steamer Fitzclarence last Friday, is in the hospital at Gallop's Island suffering from some mysterious illness. The Fitzclarence came here from Antwerp. It is said the disease resembles bubonic plague, but there is no certainty that the man is afflicted with the dread disease.

"IRON HALL" PROMOTER DEAD.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 5.—Freeman D. Somerby, president of the Iron Hall of Baltimore City, is dead at his home in this city. Mr. Somerby was one of the organizers of the old Iron Hall, which passed into the hands of a receiver some years ago, and by whom his affairs were wound up. He was well known in financial circles throughout the country.

McKINLEY PARDONS A CONVICT.

Washington, Jan. 5.—President McKinley has pardoned E. R. Cassett, former president of a national bank at Pella, Iowa, who was sentenced to nine years in the penitentiary for looting the institution. He has served four years and nine months, and is in badly broken health.

Kaiser Has No Plans Regarding Paris.

Berlin, Jan. 5.—The Cologne Volks Zeitung asserts that Emperor William will proceed during May or June next to Havre and will then visit the Paris exposition. Inquiry at the foreign office regarding this brought out the statement that the emperor had formed no such plan.

DRESS AND FASHION.

FUR THE DOMINANT NOTE OF SMART WINTER MODES.

A Chic Little Eton Jacket In Broad-tail and Ermine—Velvet Redingote Fur Trimmed—Sable Collar—Short Coats In Soft Leather.

Fur is the dominant note in dress just now. Even the shoulder straps of satin evening dresses are formed of bands of sable caught up with the natural heads. It would be difficult to find a better example of newest outdoor modes than the Eton jacket here portrayed, which is made in broadtail, and, with its high collar and revers of ermine, is decidedly stylish.

The front is further trimmed with the tails of this little animal, which, as far as dress is concerned, has of late

FUR ETON JACKET.

Years met with but scant patronage. Many women have elected to adopt the Eton jacket and its several allies as a favorite fur winter garment, but sealskin coats are by no means out of date. They are cut longer back and front and shorter on the hips than they have been for years.

High collars of Russian sable that fit the neck and have long ends of cream lace and lace caught in at the waist with two small heads of the animal, below which the lace flows freely, are perhaps among the smartest additions to the dress of the present.

A handsome wrap is shown in the redingote or long semiloose coat in royal blue velvet trimmed with embroidery on a white panne foundation. Bands of sable are carried round the hem of the skirt, the wrists and high funnel shaped collar. A wider shaped band encircles the shoulders in the hood style, which is the very latest item of fashion, and heads and tails fall in front. The hat is in black velvet faced with light blue satin, with black amazon feathers.

For walking dress Parisians are wearing short coats made in soft leather.

HANDSOME LONG COAT.

er, kid and prepared suede, and smart and serviceable they look with a tailor made skirt. The toque should match.

Hats, coats, ruffles and 'ous continue to disport themselves in the lightest of tints. This is only one more evidence of fashion's extravagance.

Velvet Muffs.

The large, fashionable fur muffs are costly, and for those who want something more modest nothing is prettier than the velvet affairs made large and wide in the shape which is both graceful in the hand and very comfortable. White glace silk forms the big frills at either end, which are so characteristic of muffs of this description and which may be bordered narrowly with sable, while the center part is made entirely in velvet and finished at the side with big bunches of violets and green leaves, the stems of which are tied with black velvet ribbon.

A Unique Window Screen.
The New York Tribune tells of the ingenious manner in which one woman screened a window overlooking a neighbor's unattractive back yard. She procured from the glazier a number of panes of glass the exact size of those of the lower sash and a ball of putty. Then she covered the panes of the window with pressed autumn grape leaves, ferns and other brightly tinted foliage. She imitated the bunches of grapes with purple tissue paper, cutting out each grape separately, the tissue paper giving the same luminous effect as the pressed leaves. The stems and tendrils she painted in oils, gumming the leaves and grapes in place with a little mucilage and adding a few butterflies which she bought from a collection. When her design was finished, she covered each pane with the others she had bought and fastened them in with the putty, making an illuminated window of great beauty.

An Example of Queer Militarism.
Spain is giving the world just now a curiously complete example of queer militarism. She has 23,000 army officers, which was about four times too many, even when she still held Cuba and the Philippines. Now, when she has to cut her army down the figure is outrageous. But General Polavieja will not hear of reducing it, and will not even listen to the proposal to reduce down the number of cadets, and so diminish the corps of officers in future. The plain fact is that the military gentlemen consider that they have a right to "eat the budget," as the Spanish phrase has it, and to provide for their sons in the service. So an establishment equal to France's is kept up.

Christening Parties.
How fashionable christening parties are becoming! Not only are relations invited, but a big reception is given after the ceremony, and in addition to the gifts for baby which are customary from the sponsors, it is now the very latest idea to give each guest a charmingly dainty box of chocolate tied with gay ribbons and the baby's monogram in gold on the box. The color chosen for the ribbons is the one selected by the mother for baby's wear, and they may be of the costliest description and serve as a dainty memento of the day.

Thayer Meets the Reoos Case.
St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 5.—The case of John B. Reese was heard before Judge Thayer of the United States Circuit court Thursday. At the conclusion of the arguments Judge Thayer announced that he would file his opinion in Topeka at some future time.

Reese, who is a member of the executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America, went to Kansas last April and spoke in behalf of striking miners at Fort Scott. He was arrested and sentenced to three months in jail for violating an injunction of the United States District court, and subsequently released on a writ of habeas corpus.

Big Railway Strike Near.
Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 5.—There is strong probability of the inauguration of big strikes on half a dozen large railroad systems of the country as a result of the disbandment of the Federation of Railway Employees and the consequent cancellation of the agreement between the orders composing the federation, including the Order of Railway Conductors, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, the Order of Railway Telegraphers and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. It is said the roads affected are the Pennsylvania, the Big Four and the New York New Haven & Hartford.

Michigan Town in Flames.
Muskegon, Mich., Jan. 5.—It is reported here that the town of Meairs is being destroyed by fire. The fire started in the business district about 9 o'clock. The first building destroyed was the Chapman drugstore, then followed the postoffice, a furniture store, and barber shop. A strong southwest wind is blowing, and the residence portion of the village is threatened.

The Cheerful Open Fire.
The open fire does make heart and hand lighter, and solemnity is not absolutely essential to good management, as our Puritan ancestors thought. The fire is company and cheer and hospitality. If you are alone, you are not so apt to be lonely as if your only friend present were a steam radiator. If the room is full and you feel pensieve, you can indulge in the feeling without rudeness, whereas there is something about a room without a fireplace, or one in which the chimney is blocked up, that makes a great deal of polite chatter necessary.—House Beautiful.

Fashions and Fancies.
The crepe de chine scarf, with fringed ends coming through the left side of the corsage, represents a new fancy.

Blue plume hats, or rather toques, are the dernier cri of French elegance in the matter of headgear. They are composed altogether of soft pale blue feathers, with the brims curling upward, and no trimming save an owlish head in the front. White cloth toques are worn by Parisian ladies.

Stitchings are now being applied to what would seem to be the most unlikely materials. For example, velvet for millinery and for dresses where it acts as handmaiden to other fabrics. It is pretty well covered with close stitched or inch wide lines of white stitching.

Gray, castor and beaver are favorite costume colors this season.

Long transparent lace of chiffon sleeves find favor in dressy waists for the theater, etc.

MAN MUST TAPER

BY JOHN F. WILLOUGHBY.

New Styles
Give Him Broad,
Square Shoulders and Narrow His Trousers Bottoms.

The fashionable man, when he gets on his new fall clothes, will be V shaped. The clothes will make him so. He will taper.

His shoulders will be wide and high and square. They will form the top of the V. The bottoms of his trousers will be narrow. They will be creased too. This will make them dwindle away to the diminishing point.

Now the shoulders of many men are neither high nor wide nor square. The tailor will fix that. With padding and canvas and haircloth and wire he will build out those rounded shoulders until they assume the proper proportions.

So don't be surprised at the number of athletic-looking men you see on the fashionable promenades.

The real test of stylishness to apply to a man's attire is to see whether or not he tapers from the shoulders down. If he does, he is what St. Louis people call "a real dresser."

Of course there are details. Closer inspection should reveal a new derby hat with a flattened brim and a low crown. It should show a double breasted waistcoat. The trousers should be rather wide at the hips and will almost to bogginess all the way to the knees. Below the knees the trousers should narrow until you wonder how he gets his feet in and out of the bottoms.

Every season brings some distinctive style, and, although the fall styles for 1899 are not radically different from those of the year previous, the "left over" coats will be readily recognized by the shoulders. Last season they were wide, high and rounded. This season they will be wide and higher and square instead of rounded.

"This," said John J. Mitchell, the fashion publisher, "applies to overcoats

THE V SHAPED MAN. as well as to undercoats, but only the latter will have the shoulders much built up, for the reason that this will raise the shoulders of the overcoats nearly to a fashionable height. There will also be some difference in the style of sack coats, which will be less shapely and will have wider backs. The Chesterfield, or fly front, overcoat will be made to hang straighter from the shoulders, but not so straight as to hide the outlines of the wearer's back.

The rolls of winter overcoats will be finished with silk, and the quilted effect, which was worn to some extent last season, will probably be worn again.

Trousers will be considerably wider at the hips and a trifle narrower at the bottom, with straight lines from the hips down, and will be slightly creased to the top of the turn up at the bottom, where the crease will disappear.

The Chesterfield overcoat will again be the popular outer garment and will be about the same length as it was last year. It will range from 30 to 40 inches in length for a man of average height—5 feet 8 inches—or from five to six inches more than one-half of a man's height. The back will have a center seam, and the collar will be of the coat material, although velvet will be used also, but not so much as in former seasons.

There will be only a few changes in evening dress for men. The roll of the coat will be long and silk finished to the buttonholes for the peaked lapel, and to the edge for the straw roll style. The skirts will have an average width at the bottom of 5½ inches and will have nearly sharp corners, with blind stitched edges, but cording and narrow braiding will also be worn.

The double breasted waistcoat will be the most popular, but the half double breasted style, which is cut widely double breasted at the end of the roll and single breasted at the bottom, will also be popular. For all waistcoats the opening will be more circular than U shaped.

Single breasted waistcoats will be shield shaped in the opening and will

FASHION PLATE
CHESTERFIELD.

PRINCE OF WALES' NEW GREEN HAT. is made of the same material as the coat and finished with serpentine or other narrow braid. This double breasted and half double breasted waistcoats will be made of white or fancy material.

The Tuxedo will be shapely in the back and five inches less than one-half the wearer's height, and will be finished like the evening coat, except that it will have neither buttons nor buttonholes and will have hip pockets.

In hats the changes are slight. In comparison with last season's derby the style shown by the Dunlap is fuller in the crown and is made in four depths, with brims from 1½ to 2½ inches in width.

But the derby has lost much of its old time popularity. The soft hat has won its way through all opposition and is now considered just as good form for day wear as the stiff one.

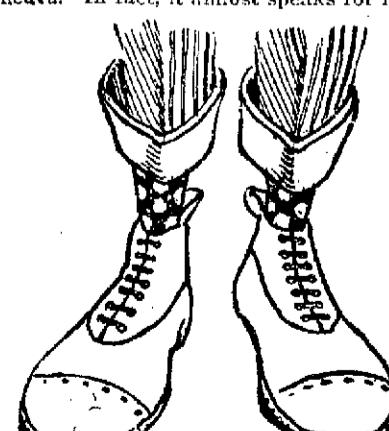

News comes across the water that the Prince of Wales, who has for years been a staunch exponent of the fedora, has just brought out something new. While at Mariebad, on the continent, he appeared in a green felt hat. It became instantly popular.

When the prince went back to London he took along with him a boxful of those green hats and distributed them among his friends. Now the London hatters are putting out green hats of every shade, labeled "The Maribor."

Whether the American gentleman is ready to welcome the new green hat or not remains to be seen. We have had browns and grays of every conceivable shade. Why not green ones?

As for foot coverings, you may take your choice within certain limits. Of course pointed toes are mainly seen at colored society cake walks. Fancy tops and odd shades of enamel are likewise tabooed by the correct man. For day wear the bulldog toe tan is in vogue, while for evening wear patent leather is, of course, the eminently proper thing.

The new hose, however, must be heard. In fact, it almost speaks for it-

THE PROPER THING IN FOOTWEAR. self. Solid shades of vivid red and royal purple are much worn by young men who desire to affect "the limit." They turn up their trousers generously at the bottom so that the turbulent glories of their stockings may not be hidden. For men of quieter tastes there are stockings of cadet blue with fine white polka dots.
